Customer Reviews

This simply presented, no-nonsense book gets straight down to the business of having you rolling on the floor if you appreciate the essence of puns, groaning if you not used to them, or leaving the room if you are looking for bathroom humor. Some of the funniest puns (and they ARE puns) I've ever seen in one place, and not just all the old re-treads. Look no further, you'll love this book from page one (well, actually from the cover)!

I am a pun loving person, but these are some of the funniest ones I've heard--and literate, too. The chapter on the rich and infamous plays on the names of well known figures--"Was there a less violent option for Macbeth killing the king? Yes, he could have put poison in Duncan's donuts" Anyone who shares Shakespeare and my love of puns will certainly enjoy this new collection.

Bought this for my husband and he loves it! There really is a book of puns. Are there more like this?
